C.W. Kendall Pianist for The Stars

As the keyboard player for The Big Beats, one of the most popular touring bands of the fifties and sixties, C.W. had the opportunity to meet, tour, and perform with some of the biggest and most popular bands in the recording industry. He toured and performed with many famous musicians including Johnny Cash, Gene Vincent, Roy Orbison, Ricky Nelson, Sonny James, and Bobby Darren.

In fact, C.W. continues to receive royalties for performing, writing, and playing with Buddy Holly and The Crickets.

Although he still performs with The Big Beats, C.W. decided that he wanted to try something a little different. In 2010, he put together a really exciting venture: C.W.'s One Man Band, giving him more "playing" time for smaller groups and clubs at a reasonable price.

Close your eyes, and you'll hear a seven piece band! Look up, and you'll see one man! C.W. is a great musician and vocalist, playing everything from Oldies, to Classic Rock and Country. He has a contagious stage presence which makes for a very entertaining show. He doesn't play laid back, sleepy music, but music that will awaken fond memories and make you want to dance. C.W. wants to play for your party, event, or club and is willing to travel.
